

MIDDLE EAST & AMERICAN ISLAMIC CONFLICT UPDATE

TRUE DEFINITION OF ISLAM

IT IS A SOCIO-POLITICAL SYSTEM THAT USES A DEITY TO ADVANCE ITS AGENDA

EUROPEAN DEAL WITH THE DEVIL

Europe made a deal with the devil in 1973. Due to their need of oil, they agreed to the demands of Arab oil countries for the unlimited migration of Muslims, building of Mosques, and always vote against Israel in the UN.

BACKGROUND OF THE CRISIS

- Obama pulling out of Mid-East in 2011, created a vacuum that Iran, Russia, and ISIS filled.
- Ignited a 1400yrs old conflict between Shi'ites and Sunni.
- The Shi'ites: Iran, Syria, Hizbollah, & Yemen
- The Sunni: Saudi/Gulf states, Egypt, Jordan, Kurds, and Turkey.
- American and the west playing both sides

MIDDLE EASTERN LAND & POWER GRAB

UNUSUAL BED FELLOWS

- The Egyptian Foreign Minister's (Sameh Shoukry) visit to Israel on July 10th probably came as a surprise to many.
- It has been 37 years since the Israeli-Egyptian Peace Treaty was signed, the formal agreement has not trickled into public consciousness in Egypt and that there still exists considerable suspicion on both sides.
- The same might be said of the peace between Israel and Jordan which was signed nearly 25 years ago.
- Under the Muslim Brotherhood's (Mohamed Morsi) short reign following the ouster of Mubarak, relations between Israel and Egypt reached a 35 year low as Morsi struck up a cozy relationship with Iran, and began helping Hamas which had become an Iran's proxy (along with Lebanese Hezbollah) in its fight to eliminate Israel.
- Sameh Shoukry's presence in Israel indicates that the icy peace between Israel and Egypt, signed by Begin and Sadat in 1979, is thawing, and this could be the beginning of their establishing legitimate, full up bilateral relations.
- At regional level, Egypt plays a central role in the Sunni Arab States anti-Iran Coalition which includes Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Bahrain and the UAE.

ALLIANCE CHANGES

- If it did nothing else, the so-called "Arab Spring" brought to the fore the confrontation between Shi'ite Iran and the Sunni Arab countries.
- The Sunnis see themselves defending against Iranian aggression in Syria, Iraq, Lebanon and Yemen.
- Under the circumstances any kind of cooperation between Egypt and Israel is noteworthy as it could be a harbinger broadening relations with Israel with other Arab states as well.
- Therefore, we watch Egypt's rapprochement with Israel (and Russia) expands, while Obama's cold shoulder toward both Egypt and Israel grows ever colder.
- Our current administration has become a laughing stock in the Middle East.

- Their joke that is far better for a country to be America's enemy than its ally as it will then spend unlimited amounts to woo you, and it seems never to have met an enemy it does not like.
- We witness this even now as the Iranians proceed with developing ballistic missiles to carry nuke weapons (a violation of Obama's Agreement) and use the money we paid them ($1.7B so far) to buy weapons (S-300AD missile system from Russia to protect their primary nuke fuel enrichment facility) and to support their proxies (Hamas, Lebanese Hezbollah, Iraqi Shiite Militias, etc) throughout the region.
- In the Sinai Peninsula, Hamas and its collaboration with ISIS brings Israel and Egypt closer together.
- At its inception Hamas was the Palestinian branch of the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood whose avowed purpose was and is to spread Islamism across the globe to include the USA (1991 Charter specifies) where they have several under cover agencies that have penetrated our institutions (including the Exec Branch).
- Sources indicate that the IDF has been providing Intel to Egyptian forces fighting ISIS in the Sinai Peninsula.
- Shoukry's visit to Jerusalem also sent a signal to the Palestinian Authority (Abbas) to lower its expectations for narrative support.
- The traditional Arab narrative used to bamboozle their dissatisfied populace by pointing at Israel has clearly begun to change. Iran is replacing Israel in the narrative.
- Of course that will not be the case with the hard core Sunnis (Hamas, ISIS, al Nusra, AQ, Islamic Jihad) whose Qura'nic based beliefs will over ride 21st Century realpolitik.
- Like it or not at some point the Sunni Arab State Coalition might be wise to allow Israel into their trenches as they face off against the Iranian Shi'ite Jihad and internecine Sunni extremists as well.
- It's a very slow drip but its moving that way, but as always I can not see any real solution without a reformation within Islam, one that castes out the dogma that drives Islamic Imperialism, both brands – Sunni and Shiite.
- Islamic reformation is impossibility. To do so, Muslims has to get rid of half of the Qur'an and change the personality and mission of Muhammad.

ISRAELI-SAUDI COOPERATION

- The Jerusalem Post (Aug 27.2016) reported that: Israel Air Force aircraft dropped off large quantities of military gear at a Saudi Arabian military base a week ago, in preparation for a potential attack on Iran.
- The claim follows a report two weeks ago in the London Times Magazine that Saudi Arabia had given Israel permission to fly through a narrow corridor of airspace in northern Saudi Arabia so as to shorten the flight time required for Israeli jets to reach Iran.
- The Times said that Saudi Arabia had adjusted its missile defense systems to ensure that Israeli jets are not shot down while passing through Saudi airspace on the way to an attack on Iran's nuclear facilities.

SAUDI-KURDISH COOPERATION

- A decision by a Kurdish opposition group to take up arms against Iranian authorities has senior officials in Tehran worrying that Saudi Arabia is seeking to undermine its stability in a deepening of their regional rivalry.
- Alarmed by what Saudi Arabia sees as a dangerous spread of Iranian activity overseas, the kingdom no longer relies heavily on Western allies to counter it, and is heightening its own efforts to contain Iranian influence.
- Former Saudi intelligence chief Prince Turki al Faisal showed up at a rally in Paris in July of the Mujahedin Khalq Organization (MKO), the main exiled opposition group seeking to topple the country's clerical rulers.
- Israeli intelligence and military operatives were quietly at work in Kurdistan, providing training for Kurdish commando units and running covert operations inside Kurdish areas of Iran and Syria.
- According to a poll conducted in 2009 in the KRG, 71 percent of the respondents said they supported establishing diplomatic relations with Israel, and 67 percent said they viewed such relations as an important step toward an independent Kurdistan.

- There are claims that Jerusalem has provided training at PJAK (Iranian Kurds) bases in the KRG (Iraqi Kurds).
- Looking to the near future, it appears that relations between Israel and the Kurds are doomed to continue in the shadows. However, should the KRG (Iraqi Kurds) declare independence, this might change the picture on both sides. Jerusalem might be one of the first governments to recognize Kurdistan as it was with South Sudan.

AMERICA

REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT PROGRAM

- The State Department's Refugee Processing Center for Fiscal Year 2015, resettled Syrian refugees were 97% Muslim.
- In the past five years only 53 of 2003 Syrian refugees accepted by the United States have been Christians (only about 2.5% of the total). According to the Hudson Institute's Nina Shea, in a November 2 article in National Review.
- But about 10% of Syrians are Christians, so why are so few of these refugees Christians, particularly given that they are among the most persecuted of groups in Syria?
- It is not far-fetched to believe ISIS members and other jihadists could come to the United States disguised as refugees, as well.
- FBI Director James Comey, Director of National Intelligence James Clapper, and Department of Homeland Security Secretary Jeh Johnson have all admitted that Muslim refugees from Syria cannot be properly screened.
- In September, House Homeland Security Chairman Michael McCaul (R-TX) introduced a bill to protect the nation from terrorists by strengthening the screening process for refugees seeking to enter the United States.
- The bill, the Refugee Resettlement Oversight and Security Act of 2015 (H.R. 3573), also would prioritize religious minorities — those who actually do have a “well-founded fear of persecution” for refugee status. This would, of course, be the Christians and religious minorities who, in the words of Lord Carey, the former Archbishop of Canterbury, have been “yet again left at the bottom of the heap.”

- On September 30, an article in the Huffington Post exclaimed that even “Christian groups that work with refugees are strongly opposed to a proposal (H.R. 3573) that would in effect put Iraqi and Syrian Christians ahead of Muslims for resettlement in the U.S., even if they are also victims of persecution.”
- Christian groups that resist any focus on Christian victims of ISIS, and oppose actions by Congress to welcome not just economic migrants but also Christians and other religious minorities victimized by ISIS.
- Other religious minorities such as the Jews, Yazidis, Mandaeans, Shi’ites, Shabaks, and Turkmen are also being targeted, and also largely left out of refugee resettlement.
- For instance, National Review article revealed that only one Yazidi was resettled in the U.S. in the past five years of Syria’s civil war, even though thousands of Yazidi girls as young as 9 endure unspeakable horror and are often taken as sex slaves by ISIS.

WHO ARE THESE CHRISTIAN GROUPS?

These organizations, which include:

- Church World Service
- Ethiopian Community Development Council
- Episcopal Migration Ministries
- Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society
- International Rescue Committee
- U.S. Committee for Refugees and Immigrants
- Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services
- United States Conference of Catholic Bishops
- World Relief
- They acquire an average of some 70% of their revenue from taxpayer-funded federal grants and contracts. In some estimations, they receive more than $4,000 per refugee resettled.

ELECTION 2016

- If Hillary gets elected in Nov, as a president she promised she would bring in 1.7Million Muslims into the U.S.
- 1.7Million will translate into 8-15million in 4-8yrs. That’s due to family reunification, childbirth, and polygamy.

- Many in National Security Community hoping that there will not be an Arab Spring style unrest in America before the ELECTION
- They even believe that there are 1500-4000 ISIS fighter within the borders of the U.S.
- Obama should have been impeached seven years ago.
- Hillary should be in prison since 2012.
- Both are communists.

CAIR's AGENDA

- Two resolutions CAIR is trying to get passed by state governments:
 1. The first resolution is one that will recognize the contributions of Muslims in each state nationwide.
 2. The second resolution is to reaffirm the right of citizens to practice their faith within the law and free of government interference.
- This already is the law, but they want a statement about this applying to Muslims in particular. On pg 9 of their booklet:

“Whereas the state [State] has a proud history of sponsoring individual religious freedoms and is strengthened by diverse religious, political and cultural traditions of its residents, including residents who practice Islam...”
- Because some states have passed the American Law in American Courts legislation, they are trying to promote Islamic laws under the guise of religious liberty.
- Remember, Islam is not a religion. It's a socio-political system that uses a deity to advance its agenda.

U.S. COUNCIL OF MUSLIMS ORGANIZATIONS

- Muslims have now formed their own political party
- This is something we have seen in Europe. Muslims form political parties and gets people elected to political office.
- CAIR is part of this political party. He, and others from this party, have been in Washington DC. Pushing for legislation that criminalizes what they call “islamophobia.”
- Hillary Clinton has tried to push this same thing through the conferences she has co-chaired on defamation of religion laws. They are trying to criminalize the First Amendment.

- UCMO is mobilizing Muslim voters to vote for Hillary. They understand, their agenda will move forward faster with a Democratic/communist in the White House
- Muslims only comprise about 1% of our population, yet we allow them to wield a tremendous amount of power. We are foolish if we don't do something to stop this.
- One of the tools they use is fear. They use threats of jihad to get us to cower before them and give in to their demands.

TRANS-PASIFIC PARTNERSHIP (TPP)

- It is a sweeping 12-nation regulatory pact that empowers an international commission of unelected foreign bureaucrats to rule on everything from U.S. border controls to our food, drugs, energy and Internet
- If approved, TPP would lay the groundwork for entangling the U.S. in a Pacific Union akin to the European Union the voters of Great Britain just rejected. Like the European Union, TPP institutionalizes the free movement of people, goods and capital across borders.
- TPP would lock in major parts of Obama's globalist open-borders agenda, and he fears the next president and Congress could be far less likely to approve it.
- TPP includes: United States, Japan, Mexico, Canada, Australia, Malaysia, Chile, Singapore, Peru, Vietnam, New Zealand and Brunei.
- In October 2015, Obama met with Indonesian President Joko Widodo at the White House.
- "Indonesia intends to join the TPP," Indonesia is the most populous Muslim nation in the world with 250 million people.
- The TPP is a sweeping global regulatory pact. It establishes an international authority that will write rules for merging the U.S. economy with other countries in the partnership.
- Like the European Union, the Transpacific Partnership calls for the free flow of people, goods and capital among member countries.
- Sen. Pete Sessions said: "It's going to put us in an international commission that allows the sultan of Brunei to have the same vote as the president of the United States,"

- Chapter 10 calls for the opening of U.S. borders to foreign service companies that want to bring foreign workers with them to provide services in the U.S., while Chapter 12 calls for the opening of U.S. borders to the foreign professionals that they bring in.

COMEPETING IDEOLOGIES

Since the creation of man, people are always looking to secure three things:

- PEACE
- FINANCIAL STABILITY
- GOOD HEALTH

Judeo/Christian

- Bible always promoted peace with God and man
- O.T gave us the Judicial guidelines (Ten Commandments)
- O.T gave the moral code for an honest financial system
- The Bible has given the U.S. constitution its foundation of government based on the value for Human life and the pursuit of happiness according to Man's ability to work
- It gave us hospitals and care for life due to our knowledge that we are created in God's image

Islam/Humanists similarities

- To achieve peace and financial stability, Islam requires all mankind be under Shari'ah law
- Humanists believe that we must be tolerant to all ideologies except an ideology that supports the accountability of "the elite" to the same divine being as their fellow man
- Deception (lies) was promoted by Muhammad to win "warfare"
- Deception (lies) was promoted by Machiavelli in order to win the support of the public
- Many professional traders see our markets as "Financial warfare"
- Whether Humanists, who do not value life unless it provides an economic benefit to society, or Islamists, who promote the idea that suicide is noble and glorious for the cause, both have low value for human life.

WHAT HAS BEEN THE RESPONSE TO ISLAM?

- NONE
- Fear, apathy, indifferent, lack of vision, spiritual coldness.
- Refusing to stand on Biblical truths, leading to confusion.
- Adopting seeker sensitive approaches to Muslim evangelism that is resulting in heretical methods.

CHRISTIAN PLAN

PRAY:

- Pray as a church for compassion towards Muslims and for God to raise up members as the task force.
- Pray for God to bring individual Muslims to minister to.

ACTIVATE:

- Equip members to give an answer.
- Meet the practical needs to Muslims that shows the Love of Christ.
- Hospitality in your neighborhood.
- Your network
