Almost There

By Daymond Duck Published on: July 12, 2020

While preparing a message for an upcoming event, I decided to look back at things I have written about world government.

I have written too much to mention in this article, but I want to recall some of it because it has relevance for today and the upcoming election.

These things will help readers understand what is going on, and why some believe we are almost there.

One, concerning world government, Daniel said, "The fourth beast (the Antichrist's government; the coming New World Order) shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces" (Dan. 7:23).

Two, concerning world government, John said, "And it was given unto him (the Antichrist) to make war with the saints (those that become believers during the Tribulation Period), and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations" (Rev. 13:7).

So, the Antichrist will rule over all nations, and people should be aware that many globalists are working hard to turn the UN into a world government by 2030.

Three, Winston Churchill said, “The purpose of the New World Order is to bring the world into a world government.”

This famous politician (not a preacher) said, “New World Order” means world government, and it is important to understand that the Bible teaches that it will be headed by the Antichrist, and he will be a Satan worshipper (Rev. 13:4-6).

Four, in 1990, Pres. George H. W. Bush (Bush Senior) said, “Out of these troubled times (out of the Persian Gulf War), our fifth objective—a new world order—can emerge.”

Know that world government is an objective of the U.S., and the “Deep State” has been working to bring it in for years.

Five, know that the establishment of a world government is in the UN Charter.

Six, in 1997, Pres. Bill Clinton said, “What I am trying to do (to build a global system) is to promote a process of reorganization of the world.”

Seven, on May 14, 2008, Barack Obama was running for president of the U.S.; and Michelle said, “We are going to have to change our conversation; we’re going to have to change our traditions, our history; we’re going to have to move into a different place as a nation.”

On July 24, 2008, U.S. presidential candidate Obama supported a “globalized world,” and he said, “The burdens of global citizenship bind us together.”

On Oct. 30, 2008, candidate Obama said, “We are five days away from fundamentally transforming the United States of America.”

On Oct. 24, 2014, Mr. Obama had become president, and he issued a Proclamation urging all 50 governors in the U.S. and all officials under the U.S. flag to observe “UN Day” with “appropriate ceremonies and activities.”

He released a joint statement with the UN Sec. Gen. at that time, Ban Ki-moon, that said global government should be further empowered.

Eight, on Sept. 25, 2015, the UN was presented with a document called “Transforming our World: The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.”

Supporters called this document a “New Universal Agenda.”

This word “Universal” comes from the preamble of the document, and it means this document covers the entire earth and more.

Some experts said the document calls for a one-world government, a one-world religion, and a one-world economic system to be established by 2030.

Delegates from 193 nations unanimously approved it and applauded the decision.

Nine, two days later, on Sept. 27, 2015, Pres. Obama assured the UN of America’s commitment to the “Transforming our World: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development” goals.

He called the UN document “one of the smartest investments we can make in our own future.”

The next day, he addressed the UN and said, "Global integration (the merging of nations) is an agenda that transcends the narrowly defined interests of nation-states."

He was saying merging nations into groups such as the U.S., Canada, and Mexico (USMCA) is more important than their national sovereignty.

Be aware that the USMCA went into effect on July 1, 2020, and globalists believe it is more important than the sovereignty of the U.S.

I believe ten global trading blocs will form. Shortly after that, each one will elect a leader (the Ten Kings), and then the Antichrist will appear.

Ten, Pres. Obama's vice president was Joe Biden, and he called for the establishment of the New World Order (world government) on several occasions.

On April 5, 2013, Mr. Biden spoke at the Export-Import Bank Conference in Washington, DC where he said, "The affirmative task we have now is to actually create a new world order."

Mr. Biden was saying it is now America's job to create a literal world government.

Suppose he gets elected, and he or whoever replaces him follows through with this.

Eleven, on May 28, 2014, Vice-Pres. Joe Biden told the U.S. Air Force Academy graduating class, "I believe we and mainly you have an incredible opportunity to lead in shaping a new world order for the 21st century."

Mr. Biden said the 2014 Air Force Academy graduating class could help shape a world government (Biden supports the surrender of U.S. sovereignty to a world government; this explains why the globalists hate Trump. He opposes it.).

Twelve, on Jan. 21-24, 2015, a group called the World Economic Forum (WEF) met in Davos, Switzerland.

These globalists agreed to speed up the development of regions of nations all over the world.

Speeding up the development of regions of nations will speed up the surrender of their national sovereignty. (There is reason to believe it has been speeded up.)

Thirteen, here is some information about the UN Sustainable Development goals for 2030 that people need to pay attention to because Mr. Biden is running for president of the U.S., and he has spoken out in support of the UN goals. Mr. Biden is running for president of the U.S. Mr. Biden is running for president of the U.S.

For one thing, the document's preamble says, "All countries and stakeholders, acting in a collaborative partnership, WILL (not may—WILL) implement this plan."

By 2030, the UN WILL be transformed into a body that can require all nations to obey the UN. (The Constitution of the U.S. will be irrelevant, and global law will prevail.)

Unless God intervenes, in less than 10 years, the UN WILL become a satanic one-world government, and the U.S. will be required to obey the laws of the UN.

One government official said not a single human being will be allowed to escape this next great leap forward (this includes everyone in the U.S., but he is overlooking the Rapture).

One reporter said the world's children will now be indoctrinated with the idea that we are all "global citizens" (people will be citizens of a borderless world, not citizens of the U.S., Mexico, Canada, etc.).

For another thing: in 2015, then UN Sec. Gen. Ban Ki-moon called the UN Sustainable Development goals the "start of a new era." (A New Era has started, and America will not return to what was considered normal a year ago.)

Fourteen, on Jan. 1, 2016, it was reported that the UN Sustainable Development goals for 2030 had gone into effect and that everyone should expect all nations to make a strong push to bring them to pass.

Trump was elected president in Nov. 2016, and he called for making America great again (MAGA. This opposes the UN Sustainable Development Goals, and it has created a big problem for the globalists, Deep State, etc.).

Fifteen, on Mar. 10, 2016, it was reported that the UN had released a Master Plan called, "Post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals."

According to the report, every government is now required to promote wealth redistribution; government control of all production, a reduction in the consumption of goods and services, the consumption of less meat and frozen or convenience foods, the use of fewer and smaller vehicles and appliances, the use of less air-conditioning at home and at work, and the use of smaller houses and apartments.

Governments must take control of all education systems to ensure that children are "agents of change" that support world government; governments must indoctrinate everyone to accept a new set of attitudes, values and beliefs to promote a new culture of peace and non-violence (the global Ethic or world religion); and governments will provide universal healthcare, mental health services, sexual and reproductive services to everyone on earth.

Understand that this is not what the UN wants to accomplish in the next 50-75 years; this is what the UN wants to accomplish before 2030, and you need to ask yourself if these are the things you want our next president to support.

As far as this writer is concerned, there is ample proof that America is the victim of an organized effort to weaken the U.S. and bring in the New World Order.

Mrs. Clinton was supposed to complete Pres. Obama's goal of fundamentally transforming the U.S. and empowering the UN, but God put Trump in office; and "Make America Great Again" clashes with Obama's goal.

Satan's Deep State is behind it, and they are desperate to get Trump out of office because four more years of Trump will interfere with the UN's goal of world government by 2030.

People need to pay careful attention to these goals because Biden is clearly on record for supporting Obama's goal to fundamentally change America, and for his desire to create and lead in the shaping of the NWO (Google the quotes).

Know that the Rapture will take place before the Antichrist appears, but these things indicate that if Biden (or someone of the Deep State's choice) becomes president, that person will bring in the NWO, and that would be a strong indication that the Rapture is close.

For your information, one of the Sustainable Development goals is population control (a global right to abortion, LGBTQ rights, etc.).

Biden said if he is elected, one of his first executive orders will be to re-fund Planned Parenthood and do anything he can to be as pro-abortion as he possibly can be. (He is supporting the UN agenda which requires the weakening of the U.S.)

Having said this, here are five recent events that seem significant:

One, on June 19, 2020, the World Economic Forum (WEF) announced that it will hold its annual meeting in Davos, Switzerland, in Jan. 2021 and the theme will be the “Great Reset.”

The “Great Reset” means changing every aspect of society by redistributing the world’s wealth, enacting a global tax, supporting world government, and more.

On that same day, former U.S. VP, Al Gore, went on TV to call for a “Reset” of the global economy to support “climate change.”

He said air pollution caused by burning fossil fuels heightens the death rates of the Coronavirus.

Expect what the WEF agrees to at that Jan. 2021 meeting to be pushed on the world shortly thereafter.

Mr. Biden has already come out in favor of tax increases in the U.S., and if he is elected, he will be at the president’s desk when the request to fund the New World Order goes around the world.

Two, on June 25, 2020, the 75th anniversary of the adoption of the UN Charter, UN Sec.-Gen. Guterres said, “The world needs an overarching level of multilateral governance that can sideline problematic ‘national interests.’” (In my words, he was saying, “The world needs groups of nations, not one person, with the power to set aside the desires of individual nations.”)

Guterres said there is a need to “reimagine the way nations cooperate.”

Guterres added, “We need a networked multilateralism, bringing together the U.N. system, regional organizations, international financial institutions and others.” (Know that I believe the Bible teaches that 10 regional groups of nations will rise and be headed by the 10 leaders or 10 kings before the Antichrist rises.)

Three, on June 26, 2020, it was reported that Facebook will start blocking and removing everything that criticizes the globalist agenda.

They immediately placed a “hate speech” warning label on a Republican pro-Trump video campaign ad.

The video shows true events, but Facebook gave in to people that want to silence the events.

The next day, it was reported that Republicans and conservatives (Sean Hannity, Jim Jordan, Kayleigh McEnany, Ted Cruz, Rand Paul and others) are flocking to a new app called @parler_app

Four, on June 29, 2020, NYC Mayor de Blasio announced plans to cut $1 billion from NYC’s police budget.

Some of the leftists complained that defund the police means defund, not cut.

Many local police departments won’t submit to globalist control, so the globalists want all local police departments disarmed, dismantled or placed under the federal government to weaken the resistance to their global policies.

In years past, some globalists have suggested that U.S. troops be sent out of the U.S., and troops from other countries be brought into the U.S. to deal with U.S. citizens that might want to resist the surrender of America.

Citizens need to elect politicians that won't go along with these control tactics.

God may use the next U.S. presidential election to impact how soon the New World Order will take over, but regardless of who wins, events are now moving with unprecedented speed, and we are almost there.

Five, in my article that was posted last week, I reported that Atty. Gen. Barr said that some of the individuals and groups that have been involved in the violence in the U.S. may be supported by foreign entities.

A friend sent me an article this week that says the U.S. has caught Communist China supplying weapons to Antifa and Black Lives Matter.

<https://www.naturalnews.com/2020-07-03-communist-china-providing-automatic-weapons-to-antifa-black-lives-matter.html>

I am not making any of these things up, and if these things are true, there are no words to convey how serious all of this is in light of Bible prophecy.

The NWO could drag on for a while, or something could happen that causes it to come together almost overnight.

Many think things are happening fast now, but they will happen faster in the future.

Every church member needs to be sure they are really saved, and every person that hasn't accepted Jesus as their Saviour needs to sincerely do that immediately.

Turkey vows to 'liberate Al-Aqsa' after turning Hagia Sophia to mosque

The resurrection of Hagia Sophia heralds the Liberation of the Al-Aqsa mosque, the Turkish Presidency website says.

By SETH J. FRANTZMAN JULY 11, 2020

Turkey's President Recep Tayyip Erdogan vowed to "liberate al-Aqsa mosque" from Israel after "resurrecting Hagia Sophia" as a mosque on Friday.

The decision to change the status of the ancient Hagia Sophia church, which had been transformed into a mosque in 1453 and then into a museum in 1934, was made controversially last week.

It follows an increasingly religious authoritarian agenda from Ankara that has made Turkey the world's largest jailer of journalists, seen dissidents imprisoned for "terrorism" and witnessed increasing military invasions of neighboring countries by Turkey.

The resurrection of Hagia Sophia heralds the liberation of the al-Aqsa mosque, the Turkish Presidency website says. “The resurrection of Hagia Sophia is the footsteps of the will of Muslims across the world to come... the resurrection of Hagia Sophia is the reignition of the fire of hope of Muslims and all oppressed, wrong, downtrodden and exploited.”

The speech, which was in Turkish, was translated slightly differently to Arabic and English, apparently as a way to hide part of Ankara’s full views on how it has linked Hagia Sophia to a wider agenda. In Arabic the speech says that turning Hagia Sophia into a mosque is part of the “return of freedom to al-Aqsa,” essentially meaning Israel should be ejected from controlling Jerusalem’s Old City where al-Aqsa is located.

Turkey’s president linked the decision to reviving Islam from Bukhara in Uzbekistan to Andalusia in Spain. This terminology, linking al-Aqsa in Jerusalem to Hagia Sophia and Spain, is a kind of coded terminology for a wider religious agenda. In the Turkish translation the same reference to Spain does not appear to be included as in the Arabic.

Turkey’s current president has long championed the Palestinian cause and been an extreme critic of Israel, famously walking off the stage at Davos during a discussion with former president Shimon Peres in 2009. Turkey then sent the Gaza flotilla to try to breach Israel’s blockade of Gaza, leading to the deaths of 10 Turkish citizens when Israeli forces raided the Mavi Marmara ship.

In recent years Turkey’s religious and political authorities have been making increasingly adversarial statements about Israel, vowing to mobilize the “Islamic ummah” in June against Israel’s annexation plans. Linking the major change at Hagia Sophia to Jerusalem illustrates that Ankara’s ambitions are far larger than just reasserting Islamic prayers at the historic mosque and church in Istanbul; it is part of a larger Islamic agenda for the region.

Turkey’s ruling AK Party is rooted in the Muslim Brotherhood and Turkey is a close ally of Hamas in Gaza. Hamas is also rooted in the Muslim Brotherhood. This strategy by Turkey seeks more influence across the region with like-minded groups and countries, such as Qatar and the Government of the National Accord in Libya.

Turkey is seeking to supplant Saudi Arabia and other countries in the region, such as Egypt and Jordan, as the main determiner of what is “Islamic.”

This means Ankara’s leadership believes that its changes to Hagia Sophia are only one step of a larger religious militarist agenda in the Middle East. Turkey invaded part of eastern Syria in October 2019 after depopulating the Kurdish region of Afrin in Syria in January 2018.

Turkey then recruited Syrian refugees to fight in Libya’s civil war as part of an energy and military deal with Tripoli. In June, Turkey launched airstrikes in Iraq against Kurdish groups, claiming to be fighting “terrorism.”

One day, Turkey could even aim its sights at Jerusalem. The speech about Hagia Sophia clearly indicated this is on the agenda in the future.
