“Let us be alert to the season in which we are living. It is the season of the Blessed Hope, calling for us to cut our ties with the world and build ourselves on this One who will soon appear. He is our hope—a Blessed Hope enabling us to rise above our times and fix our gaze upon Him.” Tozer

World Government Looming

By Daymond Duck

People called globalists, the Global Elite, the Shadow Government, and various other names want to create and run a New World Order.

A New World Order implies the demise of the current world order.

The slogan of many globalists (including the Biden Administration, the UN, and Pope Francis) is “Build Back Better,” but to build back, the current world order must be destroyed first.

To Build Back Better implies a better world, but globalists are really trying to gain total control of everyone on earth (our religious system, our political system, our economic system; what we buy, what we sell, what we say, what we own, where we live, where we work, who we worship, and more).

In 2021, they will be seeking global approval to bring about their New World Order through the Davos Dialogues, the Great Reset, World Bank, IMF, G-7, and G-20 meetings.

Notice that all of these meetings are gatherings of elite globalists and not gatherings of people that have been elected by ordinary citizens.

At two meetings in 2019 (the UN and the World Economic Forum), Pres. Trump said, “The future does not belong to globalists. It belongs to patriots.”

Trump’s patriotism and nationalism are in direct opposition to the New World Order globalism.

I may be wrong, and if I am, I ask God to forgive me, but here is my opinion on some of the things that are happening:

- The purpose of the election fraud (should I call it treason) is to remove Trump, bring down the current nationalist world order, and empower people to replace the current world order with the New World Order. It will take most of 2021 for “The Davos Dialogues” (Jan. 25-29), “The Great Reset” (May 18-21), the IMF, World Bank, and other meetings to be held, proposals to be adopted, dates set for new laws to go into effect, etc., but the inauguration of a president that intends to push this signifies that a world government is on the way.

- The purpose of small business lockdowns is to impoverish owners and their employees to make them dependent upon government for a check so these people can be forced to obey the New World Order. If you do not think the U.S. government would do this to U.S. citizens, please explain why the first version of the recent stimulus bill proposed more money for pork projects (museums, Pakistan, Lebanon, Egypt, Burma, Sudan, etc.) than it proposed for unemployed citizens in the U.S. Please explain why it proposed nothing for restaurant owners, Gym owners and others in the U.S.

Why aren't American taxpayers put first? (Trump signed the bill but sent it back to Congress with instructions to cut the amount of pork and increase the benefits to U.S. citizens. Also, know that the trillions that are being spent on bailouts are setting the stage for hyper-inflation and an economic collapse during the Tribulation Period.)

- The purpose of Church lockdowns is to weaken the Church and silence most of the opposition to world government.
- The purpose of the Coronavirus is to initiate a program that will eventually be used to number and track everyone on earth. It is currently being used to desensitize people to the Mark of the Beast. When that is enacted, people will not be allowed to live the way they want to live. People will be forced to live the way the elite tell them to live or they will be removed from the earth. (The Mark of the Beast is a minimum of 3 ½ years from now).
- The purpose of Climate Change is wealth redistribution (Your wealth, not the elite's wealth. You won't own anything, but they will be very rich) and support for a world government that says natural disasters are a global problem that needs a global solution.
- The purpose of enticing multi-millionaire athletes to kneel during the national anthem, enticing rioters to destroy statues, etc., is to convince citizens that the U.S. is a bad nation and capitalism must be replaced.
- The censorship, lying and deception of most of the media is because many of the rich, elite owners are part of the shadow government or, at the very least, are catering to it.
- The purpose of abortion, the gay agenda, euthanasia, etc., is to slow population growth in the world.
- The opposition to a wall on the U.S.-Mexican border is because the globalists want a borderless world.
- The globalist desire to divide Israel is because they ignore or don't believe the Bible (a big mistake).
- God put Trump in office as a roadblock because the time had not arrived, but at some point in time, God will permit the globalists to establish and control a wicked world government for 7 years.
- Trump was spied on, falsely accused of colluding with the Russians, impeached by the House, ridiculed by the media for four years, and some of his friends were prosecuted, but nothing has been done to Hillary, Obama, Biden, Comey, Brennan, or any of the Democrats. The U.S. government has three divisions: Executive, Judicial, and Legislative – and under a Biden administration, all of them will be corrupt. Even if the Republicans control the Senate, there are enough corrupt Republicans for the corruption to continue unabated.

My opinions can be summed up this way: It looks like a world government is looming (The reason is sin and the abandonment of God in America).

Here are some recent reports on current events:

One, on Dec. 23, 2020, it was reported that a subcommittee of the Georgia Standing Senate Judiciary Committee issued a report that says the election was “chaotic and any reported results must be viewed as untrustworthy.”

They called for the Legislature to carefully consider its obligations under the U.S. Constitution, for the governor and the entire General Assembly to convene, and if the majority of the General Assembly agrees with the subcommittee’s findings, they should rescind the certification of the election.

According to the article, the General Assembly can do this when there is evidence of election fraud.

I have not seen a report on what they will do.

Two, it has been reported that Ron Raffensperger, the brother of Georgia’s Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger, is employed by a Chinese government-owned company called Huawei Enterprise Storage Solutions.

Brad is an avid anti-Trumper, and some believe he has been heavily involved in Georgia’s apparent election fraud.

Three, The Trump Campaign has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to rule on several election fraud issues before Jan. 6, 2020, the day that Congress counts and certifies the electoral votes.

The court responded by setting the hearing for Jan. 22, 2021, two days after Biden is sworn in on Jan. 20, 2021.

On Jan. 22, 2021, the court is expected to say the hearing is not necessary because the election is over and Biden has already been sworn in.

This is one more indication that the U.S. Supreme Court is controlled by the Shadow Government and is no longer serving in the best interests of the U.S. citizens.

What is the purpose of having a U.S. Supreme Court when the results are determined before a case is heard by judges doing things like this?

What is the purpose of having elections if they are not honest?

Why vote if corrupt individuals are going to be allowed to determine who wins.

Four, on Oct. 2019, Joe Biden said if he is elected, “No one in my family will have an office in the White House, will sit in on meetings as if they are a cabinet member, will, in fact, have any business relationship with anyone that relates to a foreign corporation or a foreign country.”

On Dec. 24, 2020, Fox News reported that a company solely owned by Hunter Biden (called Skaneateles) owns a 10% stake in a Chinese equity firm called Bohai Harvest RST (BHR).

Two days before this, the Wall Street Journal reported that one of BHR’s financiers is the Bank of China.

According to the report, Hunter says he is trying to sell his interest in the Chinese company, and Joe’s transition team will not discuss it.

Many believe a special counsel needs to be appointed to investigate this matter.

Five, on Dec. 23, 2020, a judge in Arizona refused a request by the Arizona State Senate to examine the voter machines in Maricopa County.

He will let them refile their case, but it will probably be too late to do anything by then.

Six, readers have sent me reports that say the building that was destroyed in the Nashville Christmas day bombing housed a shadow government super-computer system and election voting machines that were scheduled to be audited this week.

A second report said a Christmas Day fire destroyed a printing company in Rochester, New York, that is believed to have printed hundreds of thousands of fraudulent election ballots.

I cannot confirm some of the information in the articles, but if they are true, two disasters with ties to the election on the same day in different states looks suspicious.

Seven, concerning the prophesied growth of Israel at the end of the age, on Dec. 27, 2020, it was reported that Israel believes a Biden administration will oppose settlement construction on the West Bank, so Israel plans to approve more settlements before Biden is inaugurated.

Eight, on Dec. 22, 2020, Israel's unity government led by Netanyahu and Gantz collapsed.

By law, another election must occur 90 days later (Mar. 23, 2021).

This will be Israel's fourth election in less than two years.

Ultimately, the Messiah must occupy the Throne of David in Jerusalem and rule over Israel as the King of kings and Lord of lords.

Nine, on Dec. 27, 2020, our Baptist Sunday School lesson was about a devout man named Simeon who was waiting for the day the Messiah would bring consolation (comfort) to Israel, and it was revealed to him that he would not die before he had seen the Messiah (Luke 2:25-26).

It occurred to me that Christians are waiting for the day the Messiah will bring consolation (comfort; the Rapture; I Thess. 4:13-18) to the Church, and it has been revealed that the generation that sees the return of Israel will not die before everything is fulfilled (Matt. 24:32-34).

Finally, God loves you, and if you have not done so, sincerely admit that you are a sinner; believe that Jesus is the virgin-born, sinless Son of God who died for the sins of the world, was buried, and raised from the dead; ask Him to forgive your sins, cleanse you, come into your heart and be your Saviour; then tell someone that you have done this.

2020 in Review

By Hal Lindsey

It was one of those years when Bible prophecy proved itself to be more than a theoretical understanding of the prophets' words. It was real, visceral. You could feel it and taste it. The world shifted toward the reign of antichrist and the terrors of tribulation. But we could also see the Light of the world beaming closer and closer. The signs of our times point to a brief reign for the antichrist, then an eternal reign for the Lord of Lords and King of Kings.

More clearly than ever, we see the prophetic scenario unfolding before our eyes. Jesus is coming soon!

The Bible teaches that the world will get darker as the Lord's coming approaches, especially after the rapture. Even those who will be raptured will experience increased difficulties before it happens. In this midst of fearful times, never forget what Jesus said in Matthew 28:20. "Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

So, as we look at the darkness of the times, don't forget to keep your eyes on the Light of the world.

A terrible despair has fallen over much of planet earth. During October of 2020, there were 2,153 suicides in Japan. That resulted in more deaths in one month than all the Japanese who had died of Covid from February through October. Even before Covid, there had been a worldwide increase in suicides, especially among industrialized nations. Those numbers exploded in 2020, and they are the tip of the iceberg. Billions of people are now living in quiet despondency.

One reason is financial hopelessness. Imagine spending most of your life building a business only to see that business fold because of government restrictions. It's depressing to say the least. If you are employed by a business that closed, you also understand economic despair. We will not have official figures for a long time, but a study by Yelp found that over 160,000 businesses closed between April and September of 2020. And after September, things got worse.

Covid restrictions have been highly profitable for online retailers. Scott Kelliher, Head of Brand Ads & Partnerships at eBay said, "We saw that consumers immediately shifted their online buying habits with roughly 75% of our consumers at eBay buying more items online." Perhaps more significantly, he said, "Almost 85% of them plan to keep this new higher level of e-commerce... for the foreseeable future."

That shift coincides with the globalization of commerce and the move away from cash. Prophecy teachers have been predicting a cashless society for years. Still, most of us did not expect it to be caused, in part, by people afraid they will catch a disease from their money. A November article in "Money Under 30" said, "There are forces at play that may ultimately result in a cashless society" — something the article seemed eager for.

The pandemic hurt education in major and probably lasting ways. Across the world, it increased people's dependence on government for the sustenance of life. It gave us our first glimpse in a long time of killing off the elderly in favor of the young and pliable. It destabilized the global economy in ways that can easily lead to global government and totalitarian rule.

In 2020 we saw more clearly than ever the end of journalism and the beginning of a new era of propaganda.

It was a rough year. Jesus warned that just before His return, the world would go through birth pangs like a woman in labor. After a heavy contraction, the woman in labor gets a reprieve. 2021 may be such a reprieve. I don't know. But I do know that contractions tend to get stronger and come closer together — while the reprieves grow shorter.

But don't despair. Look up! Even in times of confusion on earth, God remains sovereign.

US Sees Indications of Possible Iranian Attack

By Mosheh Gains

WASHINGTON — The U.S. has seen increasing indications that Iran could be planning an attack against American forces or interests in the Middle East, according to a U.S. official.

The U.S. official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, acknowledged that reading Iran's intentions was "difficult and at times unpredictable."

But the indications are being taken seriously, the official said. The one-year anniversary of the U.S.' killing of top Iranian general Qassem Soleimani is just days away.

Soleimani was killed in a U.S. airstrike in Iraq on Jan. 3, 2020, in what the Defense Department characterized as a "defensive action" because it alleged the leader of Iran's Quds Force was developing plans to attack Americans. Iran launched missiles against U.S. forces in Iraq in response to the killing days later.

This week, the U.S. flew B-52 bombers based at a Minot, North Dakota, Air Force base to the Middle East in a "deliberate appearance," U.S. Central Command said, in the second such show of force this month.

The U.S. has recently accused what it said was an Iranian-backed militia of a Dec. 20 rocket attack on Baghdad's green zone, in which 21 rockets were fired. No one was injured or killed.

Javad Zarif, Iran's foreign minister, in a Tweet on Thursday objected to the B-52 flights and wrote: "Intelligence from Iraq indicate plot to FABRICATE pretext for war."

On Dec. 23, referring to the rocket attack that damaged the U.S. embassy in the green zone, President Donald Trump had tweeted: "Some friendly health advice to Iran: If one American is killed, I will hold Iran responsible. Think it over."

"We'd be happy with de-escalation," the U.S. official said Thursday, adding that amid the uncertainty, the situation continues to be watched closely.

The tensions come weeks before president-elect Joe Biden will be sworn in, and the Iranian regime has sent clear signals that it wants U.S. sanctions lifted — something an attack could jeopardize.

Also on Thursday, the aircraft carrier the USS Nimitz was ordered to return to its U.S. homeport after a 10-month deployment to the Middle East and the Horn of Africa, the Pentagon said.

"We continue to watch Iran very closely," Acting Secretary of Defense Chris Miller told NBC News in a statement late Thursday.

“While it is my hope that we enter 2021 peacefully and without conflict, the Department is at the ready to defend the American people and her interests,” he said.

China Trying to use Covid to Launch Global Tracking System

CBN News

China's communist leader Xi Jinping is calling for countries across the world to accept a global COVID-19 tracking system that uses QR codes in an attempt to expedite international travel.

Xi proposed the concept during a virtual G20 leaders' meeting on Saturday, noting that this "global mechanism" uses an electronic barcode that would help determine a traveler's health status, according to China's government-run "news" agency.

"China has proposed a global mechanism on the mutual recognition of health certificates based on nucleic acid test results in the form of internationally accepted QR codes," Xi said. "We hope more countries will join this mechanism."

"We need to further harmonise policies and standards and establish 'fast tracks' to facilitate the orderly flow of personnel," he added. The system provides users with a color code based on their risk of exposure to the coronavirus and the QR codes, or bar codes can be read on mobile devices.

A green code indicates that someone is safe to travel, while an orange or red code signifies the need to quarantine for up to two weeks.

Xi didn't elaborate on the type of app or QR code system that would be used and who would design it.

Meanwhile, some people have expressed concerns over the use of a system that was designed by China's communist party which is known for using extreme methods to control people through censorship and surveillance.

Kenneth Roth, executive director of Human Rights Watch tweeted, "Beware of the Chinese government's proposal for a global QR code system. An initial focus on health could easily become a Trojan Horse for broader political monitoring and exclusion, akin to the dangers associated with China's social-credit system."

Stuart Hargreaves, associated professor at Chinese University of Hong Kong, said if a QR code is used to store classified health information then issues over privacy become "particularly important."

"(For example) what information is stored in the underlying record, how it is generated, where it is stored, who has access to it," Hargreaves argued.

Raina MacIntyre, head of the Biosecurity Research Program at the University of New South Wales' Kirby Institute stressed that safeguarding private information is pivotal.

"(But) will individuals consent to another government that isn't their own government accessing their data? That may be the price to pay for travel," she said.

And some Christians say these technology-driven measures and tracking systems are another step toward the fulfillment of the End Times "Mark of the Beast" prophesied 2,000 years ago in the biblical book of Revelation.

"It also forced all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads, so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name."- Revelation 13:16-17 (NIV).
