Klaus Schwab’s Right-Hand Man Calls for “Mass Extinction Event” to Usher in Great Reset

by Ethan Huff

Another leaked video has emerged to show that the World Economic Forum (WEF), led by the infamous globalist kingpin Klaus Schwab, is planning to unleash mass genocide as the catalyst for its promised “Great Reset.”

Yuval Noah Harari, who is described as Schwab’s “right-hand man,” is on a promotional tour right now shilling a new book he allegedly wrote. That manuscript asks questions like: What do we need so many humans for?

Now that the globalists have attained near-total control over pretty much everything, they appear ready to cull the herd of human slaves. It began in this latest installment with the Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19) plandemic, followed by Russia’s invasion of Ukraine.

There is also skyrocketing inflation, supply chain failures, food shortages, crop destruction and other economic instability – all things that are swirling into a perfect storm of global shock and awe. Referring to non-globalists as “common people” who are fully disposable, Harari’s latest leaked statements reveal a profound attitude of self-perceived superiority and globalist supremacy.

Harari says the common folk below him are right to be fearful about the future because their lives could end at any moment. And it would not be any great loss, he says, because non-globalists are “redundant.”

“We just don’t need the vast majority of you,” says the Israeli globalist.

In a future run by “smart people,” Harari went on to state, common people will naturally face increased feelings of anxiety and fear about being left behind. And he is technically right: those who refuse to board the ark of Christ will, in fact, be left behind in Harari’s globalist dystopia.

“We just don’t need the vast majority of you,” Harari stated out loud without shame, believing himself to be invincible.

As we previously reported, Harari, an Israeli historian and professor at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, openly admitted that he and the rest of his globalist cabal are unleashing transhumanism as their own personal “technological Noah’s Ark” – meaning they believe the lie that tampering with their DNA and genetic blueprints will somehow grant them eternal life while the rest of us are either eliminated or turned into their permanent slaves.

Talking about this kind of thing used to be scoffed at and labeled conspiracy theorism, but now we have the plan coming straight from the mouths of the globalist cabal itself – right out in the open with no shame. Rockefeller Foundation official Alan Gregg is another outspoken globalist who recently declared that the world has cancer and that cancer is mankind – excluding himself, of course.

Prince Phillip, the late Queen Elizabeth’s husband, likewise believed that humanity is a cancer that he wished he could eradicate by dying and coming back to life as a killer virus.

The now-destroyed Georgia Guidestones revealed that the globalist plan for their envisioned “New World Order” involves reducing the current population of the world from roughly eight billion, the current number, to just 500 million.

Former President Bill Clinton, unbeknownst to many, signed a so-called “biodiversity” treat during his tenure that contains an explicitly stated goal of reducing the world’s population to one billion, at least as a start.

At the “grassroots” level, the globalists have done an exceptional job programming millions of Westerners into supporting mass genocide through abortion and even infanticide, the latter constituting the murder of a child after he or she has already left the womb.

“George Orwell warned us about these times,” writes Baxter Dmitry for Newspunch. “He said they would convince us that war is peace. How right he was.”

'Biden bucks': The horrors of digital currency

By Patrice Lewis

Of the many horrors introduced by the Biden administration – open borders inviting millions of unvetted illegal immigrants, including human traffickers, criminals, and terrorists; untold quantities of fentanyl and other dangerous drugs flooding the nation; shutting down pipelines and otherwise making our nation energy-vulnerable; inflation due to rampant money printing – one of the most horrifying is coming down the pipeline. I refer to digital currency.

In Biden's vision, digital currency will "advance democracies to lift people up, not to hold them down." Naturally, digital currency is being offered as a "solution" to problems we never realized we had. It's touted as far more efficient, easy, environmentally beneficial and even more sanitary than paper currency. With digital currency, gone are the troublesome days when cash must be printed or minted. Now the government can flood the system with untold trillions of digital dollars at the push of a button. Now that's efficiency!

But despite whatever pretty words they use, there is no question digital currency is a horror show waiting to happen.

There are many risks. Digital currency would be vulnerable to hacking, technological glitches and power outages. Any hiccup in the system would mean your funds are not available "at this time." When regional disasters happen (such as Hurricane Ian) with widespread power outages, no one in the affected areas would be able to exchange currency, adding additional distress on top of existing misery.

When traditional currency is phased out, everyone will suffer. You can no longer tip your hairdresser or drop a few bucks into a homeless person's cup. You can no longer sell unneeded items at a yard sale or send your grandkid a $10 bill in a birthday card.

Bitcoin expert Anthony Pompliano calls digital currency "one of the greatest violations of human rights in history." He writes, "Once a central bank digital currency is in the hands of a population, the central bank has solidified complete control. They will no longer have to go to the court system or invoke emergency powers to tell you who you can transact with. This can all be implemented through remote, digital technologies. These central bankers will be able to see what is in your bank account, who you transact with, what you purchase, and anything else they are curious about in your financial life. That full transparency with the state removes all elements of privacy, while also giving the institutions the ability to censor any and all transactions, regardless of whether they have a legitimate reason or not."

No wonder the current administration is slaving to introduce the so-called "Biden Bucks."

Increased government control over the monetary system goes hand-in-glove with the social score concept famously wielded by the Chinese Community Party and rapidly being adopted in other nations, including America. Anything and everything that requires an exchange of currency can be monitored, and transactions can be denied for such things as firearms, meat, or other (currently) legal but politically incorrect purchases. Already the World Economic Forum is launching a coalition to reward people with "carbon credits" for using fewer resources. Digital currency makes this all possible.

The fact is, digital currency is being introduced for one reason, and one reason only: so it can be weaponized against political enemies. And as Biden himself has made abundantly clear in the last few weeks, his political enemies include anyone and everyone who doesn't wholeheartedly support his growing reign of terror.

Digital currency will allow the government to seize assets at will. Forget those middle-of-the-night FBI raids; just click a button, and the victim has nothing. The mere threat of this possibility will be enough to bring all but the most die-hard rebels into line with the régime.

Catherine Austin Fitts, former assistant secretary of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, said in a recent interview: "If you can move every human into a digital concentration camp, empty their bank account any time you want, and tell them what they can and cannot spend money on, you've got complete control."

If you think the term "digital concentration camp" sounds extreme and over-the-top, think again. If the government decides to punish you, you're toast. You can't pay your power bill, so your electricity is shut off. You can't pay your water bill, so your water is shut off. You can't buy gas, so you can't drive. You can't pay your rent or mortgage, so you're evicted. You can't pay your property taxes, so your (paid-for) home is seized. You can't buy food. Forget medical care; that's out of the question.

This cascading series of events can happen literally at the push of a button. You won't be jailed, but you won't have to be. Your life will become a living hell.

"When Biden Bucks are rolled out, many experts – myself included – believe they will begin an era of total government control and surveillance," says former CIA official Jim Rickards. "This is not hyperbole. This would dramatically expand the power and influence of the federal government ... essentially acting as a new type of 'spyware.' With Biden Bucks, the government will be able to force you to comply with its agenda. Because if you don't, they could turn off your money. This won't be like freezing a bank account, it will be so much easier."

You might claim this is mere conspiracy theory, but imagine this: Had digital currency been around two years ago, would it have been tied to mandatory COVID vaccines? Short answer: Yes. No vaccine, no access to your money. Easy peasy lemon squeezy.

The launch of this horror story occurred in March with the signing of Executive Order 14067, which laughably claims (among much else), "Any future dollar payment system should be designed in a way that is consistent with United States priorities." Oh please. Digital currency is the antithesis of American priorities, and certainly goes against everything in our founding documents.

The creepy thing about digital currency is there is no evading it. It would permeate literally every aspect of every person's life, no matter how off-grid or remote they may be. Some say a barter society will spring up – and indeed, I expect that to happen almost instantly – but you can't barter for car insurance or property taxes or other government requirements.

A digital currency would, in effect, be the end of America. When this occurs, be sure to thank the people for whom the "Biden buck stops here."

Death Throes

By Daymond Duck November 5, 2022

On Oct. 29, 2022, I received an e-mail from Brighteon that said:

- "Europe dies from here forward, and it doesn't recover for generations."
- "It's done."
- "Almost nobody realizes this yet, but the dominoes are already falling."
- "Europe is rapidly plunging into a continent on a collision course with total collapse: no industry, no supply chains, no energy, no metals, no fertilizer, and no food."

I Googled "death throes" and discovered that the Cambridge English Dictionary defines death throes as "the process of dying or ending in a very painful or unpleasant way."

According to my understanding of Bible prophecy, Brighteon has it right, but in my mind, it is not just Europe; it is all the Western nations. No, it is the entire world.

Evil people are killing freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom to buy and sell, freedom to own property, independence, democracy, Christian values (truth, morality, prayer, the Ten Commandments, etc.) because Satan has convinced them they can build back a better society (Build Back Better) without these things.

Evil people are killing the world in a very painful and unpleasant way (Jesus said it will be worse than anything that has ever happened or ever will happen), and the world will not recover until He comes back and builds it back His way.

Follow the facts (governments are deliberately destroying energy independence with winter approaching, deliberately reducing the use of fertilizer during food shortages, deliberately hindering the production of diesel fuel with a shortage looming, deliberately spending massive amounts of money with inflation raging, deliberately developing the technology and laws to track all buying and selling, deliberately creating a global pandemic to track people and reduce the population of the earth, deliberately tolerating violence and crime in many cities, deliberately working to increase abortions and euthanasia, deliberately trying to divide Israel, etc.), and it will become obvious that the government has deliberately put the entire world in its death throes right now.

It will be a slow, very painful death with a target date of 2030 or sooner.

(More: On Oct. 27, 2022, the headline on one article was “Tucker Carlson Says Canada’s Euthanasia Laws Have Reached a ‘Terrifying’ Low. On Oct. 28, 2022, the headline on another article was “Millions of Babies Will Face Death If Democrats Win the Midterms.” On Oct. 29, 2022, the headline on another article was “Child Euthanasia Without Parental Consent. Canada is Considering Just That.” If governments are willing to readily kill babies and senior citizens without consent now, what will this world be like in the near future? Globalists call it depopulation. The Bible calls it the Mark of the Beast.)

Here are some recent articles that appear to tie in with Bible prophecy.

One, concerning food shortages: on Oct. 26, 2022, it was reported that Australia is now requiring dairy farmers to vaccinate their cattle with the Covid mRNA (messenger RNA) vaccine.

A herd of about 200 dairy cows was recently vaccinated, and 35 died immediately.

Some officials are now asking if it is safe to drink milk that comes from vaccinated cows.

(Question: If the vaccination killed 35 cows, almost 20% of a herd, immediately after they were jabbed, is it possible that it killed some humans that died shortly after they were vaccinated?)

Two, on Oct. 30, 2022, World Net Daily (WND) published an article by Art Moore that said a Swiss study found increased levels of troponin (a protein found in heart muscles, but not in one’s bloodstream unless there has been heart damage) in everyone they checked (27 people) that had been vaccinated with mRNA Covid-19.

According to the article, there have been other studies that found heart damage in some people that received the mRNA jab.

(Note: I can’t prove the information, but a reader sent information to me that says whistle-blower nurses in Canada are saying that doctors at the Ontario hospital are vaccinating patients for Covid-19 without their consent while they are under anesthesia. According to the information, doctors say they can order any treatment they believe is beneficial to the patient, but they are telling the nurses not to talk about it.)

Three, concerning food shortages and famine: on Oct. 27, 2022, it was reported that BASF (the world’s largest producer of fertilizer and chemicals) will “as quickly as possible and permanently” downsize its operations in Europe because of high energy prices and burdensome regulations.

Four, energy officials in the UK recently warned citizens to prepare for rolling power cuts between 4 pm and 7 pm in Jan. and Feb. 2023. (Incidentally, on Oct. 26, 2022, the UK's new Prime Min. restored a ban on fracking in the UK.)

Five, concerning world government: in 2017, Klaus Schwab, head of the World Economic Forum (WEF), boasted that his organization had infiltrated several governments, and he specifically mentioned Canada and Germany.

On Oct. 25, 2022, Alberta, Canada's new premier, Danielle Smith, said, "I guess I find it distasteful when billionaires brag about how much control they have over political leaders, as the head of that organization has. And I think that that is offensive."

Smith said, "The people should be directing government or the people who vote for them. And the people who vote for me and for my colleagues are people who live in Alberta and who are affected by our decisions."

God bless her.

Those in positions of power in Canada, the U.S., etc., should be people that citizens of those nations have elected, not rich unelected globalist elites that live in foreign nations.

Six, concerning world government: on Oct. 27, 2022, The New American posted an article by Alex Newman about the 27th Conference of the Parties (COP27) meeting that will be in Egypt in mid-Nov.

Selected climate change representatives from almost 200 nations, the World Economic Forum (WEF), big business, and others will attend, and the three biggest issues will most likely be:

- Who is going to pay how much to fight climate change all over the world.
- How the war against climate change can be used to advance world government.
- How to advance the war against farmers to increase global control of the world's food production.

For one thing, it appears to be a global wealth redistribution scheme to transfer massive amounts of money from developed nations to underdeveloped nations.

Pres. Biden's Climate Change Czar, John Kerry, has already expressed his opinion that U.S. taxpayers will hand over a large amount of money.

Kerry also hinted that there are U.S. industries (fossil fuel industry, for example) that globalists and the UN want to destroy.

Even though some nations are already facing inflation, food shortages, energy shortages, loss of jobs, etc., many have leaders that are ignoring the suffering of their people and pledging to step up their war against climate change.

It is too early to predict what decisions will be made, but one can expect everything to be in favor of the global elite and nothing to be in favor of U.S. taxpayers.

Seven, concerning the fulfillment of Bible prophecy shortly before the Second Coming of Jesus: on Oct. 28, 2022, Harbinger's Daily posted an excellent article by Ken Mikle that says:

“The Bible tells us that four things will be in place right before the return of Christ... and these things appear to be coming together perfectly.”

1. A one-world global government.
2. A global economic system/one way to buy, sell, trade (Beast system).
3. A global dictator the Bible calls The Antichrist.
4. A global false religion the Bible calls The False Prophet.

According to Mickle, “This system (he calls it the Beast system) is already up and running; the only step left is implementing it.”

I agree with Mickle and will add that it is my understanding that every nation on earth has agreed to implement it by 2030 or sooner.

These are major events (not little things) that should cause people to realize that the Second Coming is close.

Even so, come, Lord Jesus (Rev. 22:20).

Eight, concerning the decline of America: on Oct. 25, 2022, Saudi Arabia’s Energy Minister accused an unnamed nation (he was clearly talking about the U.S.) of manipulating the markets by selling oil that had been set aside for an emergency.

The Saudi Energy Minister added, “It is my profound duty to make it clear to the world that losing emergency stock may become painful in the months to come.”

Biden has sold millions of barrels of oil from America’s Strategic Petroleum Reserves, and the Saudi Energy Minister had it right: selling America’s emergency oil to lower gasoline prices and win votes in an election could harm America in the future.

(FYI: Biden has gone out of his way to offend Saudi crown prince Mohammed bin Salman, and the prince is retaliating by strengthening his nation’s ties with Communist China.)

Nine, concerning the decline of America: on Nov. 1, 2022, The Christian Post printed an Op-Ed by Michael Brown that said, “Drag queens reading to toddlers in libraries and schools. Drag queens engaging in acts with children in gay bars. Drag queens performing in our churches. If anything was a sign that God has given America over to depravity, it is this.... But the drag queen depravity goes one step further. It celebrates that which is shameful and normalizes that which is perverse. And it does so in the most exaggerated, even overtly demonic form, with Drag Queens wearing Satanic horns while reading to tiny little children.”

Ten, concerning natural disasters and famine: on Oct. 26, 2022, data released by the National Integrated Drought Information System (NIDIS):

- 60% of the North Central U.S. is in moderate to exceptional drought.
- 30% of that area is in severe drought or worse.
- The water level in the Mississippi, Missouri, and Ohio rivers is at record low levels, and shipping is hindered in some areas.
- Out West, the Colorado River has been described as dangerously low.
- According to the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, the wheat, corn, and soybean harvest will be much lower than expected.

Ten, concerning distress of nations, inflation, and economic collapse: it has been reported that tens of thousands of people demonstrated in several cities in Germany on Oct. 30, 2022, to protest the sanctions on Russia that are causing record-high inflation (10.7%) and the destruction of Germany's economy.

Finally, are you Rapture Ready? If you want to be rapture ready and go to heaven, you must be born again (John 3:3). God loves you, and if you have not done so, sincerely admit that you are a sinner; believe that Jesus is the virgin-born, sinless Son of God who died for the sins of the world, was buried, and raised from the dead; ask Him to forgive your sins, cleanse you, come into your heart and be your Saviour; then tell someone that you have done this.
